

SANTA CRUZ COUNTY WOMEN'S COMMISSION

TRAILBLAZER AWARD

The Trailblazer Award recognizes people in the Santa Cruz County who, through their professional or personal efforts, are making extraordinary differences in the lives of women or girls. Honorees are people who have worked to make a significant impact on and improve the lives of women or girls, as well as inspiring and encouraging them. Those that are recognized as Trailblazers may have a focus in (but not limited to) areas such as criminal and economic justice, education, prevention of violence against women and girls, women's healthcare, political participation, and/or various organizations that support the interests of women or girls.

Recipients of the Trailblazer Award will be recognized during the March 26, 2019 Santa Cruz County Board of Supervisors meeting, followed by a special recognition gathering.

To nominate someone for this award, please complete this form and submit it to the Santa Cruz County Women's Commission by Friday, February 15, 2019. You can:
